Free Fishing Day Set for June 8

BOULDER CITY – The fish pond in Boulder City’s Veteran’s Memorial Park will be one of the venues in which anglers can fish without a license during the upcoming June 8 Free Fishing Day.

Registration for the event will begin at 7:30 a.m. Free fishing and special events, including casting games, bow fishing and information displays, will continue until 11 a.m.

The pond was stocked with catfish on April 2 and the pond’s three-fish limit and all other regulations will be enforced. The local activities are part of the Nevada Department of Wildlife’s “Get Outside and Fish Nevada” campaign. All public lakes and urban ponds are included in the June 8 license exemption.

“We look forward to working with the Nevada Department of Wildlife to provide a Free Fishing Day to all of our residents,” said Roger Hall, Parks and Recreation Department Director. “Veterans Memorial Park is a beautiful setting for this activity. We hope residents take advantage of this great program.”
