

Boulder City Provides one of the Least Expensive Energy Supplies in Clark County, U.S.

DID YOU KNOW? Most Boulder City single family residential customers’ electric costs are 30-percent less than Nevada Energy, and even standard connection fees are 25-percent less than over the hill. Check out the graph below!

Electric Prices by kilowatt (kW) per hour

WHY USE LESS? More than 90-percent of Boulder City residential customers average monthly usage is under 2000 kilowatts per hour (kW/h), costing .0878 per kW/h. But when Boulder City customers use more electricity, their rates increase into higher tiers. These tiers are designed to encourage customers to conserve electricity so Boulder City can continue to get most of its power from the most affordable hydroelectric sources.

HOW TO SAVE! Boulder City Electric Division works hard to keep our electric system reliable and affordable. You can do your part by turning off lights or appliances when not in use and keeping your thermostat at 78-degrees in the summer months. Save electricity and money by investing in a “smart” thermostat. These thermostats will change the temperature of your home in the most efficient way possible and will avoid unnecessary heating and cooling of your home while unoccupied. Run your dishwasher, clothes washer and dryer fully loaded when possible to avoid additional use.
