

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Kids Return to School Today!

School is back in session—that means about 350 to 400 students will be walking, biking or skateboarding to school most mornings. If you are driving on a school day, please use extra caution when children are present. The speed limit in school zones is 15 miles per hour—and it is strictly enforced by police. Making a U-turn in a school zone is against the law. Boulder City is fortunate to have many great crossing guards—thank you for keeping our kids safe! Please pay attention when you see them, as well as buses using stop signals: failure to stop for either is punishable by jail and fines.

“Leash-Cutting” Celebration Planned at Boulder City’s New Dog Park

Mayor Hardy, City Council and Staff invite you to a Leash Cutting Ceremony! Join us at the new Dog Park at Veterans Memorial Park on August 16, 2023 at 7:30 a.m. Bring your best friends to check out the new off-leash enclosure where your dog can play in the grass with its neighbors! Please park in the northeast corner of Veterans Memorial Park, east of the restroom facilities. All pets must be non-aggressive, current on vaccines, and wear valid pet license and rabies tags.
