

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Coronavirus information: Stay updated from SNHD

The City of Boulder City is committed to keeping employees and residents informed. As we receive news and information through the Southern Nevada Health District (SNHD) regarding COVID-19, or coronavirus, we want residents to remain educated and updated. SNHD developed a comprehensive website on COVID-19 detailing important information on the illness, including symptoms, prevention and links to the CDC at www.southernnevadahealthdistrict.org/coronavirus.

SNHD also activated its information line to assist the public in getting their questions answered. Southern Nevada Health District Information Line can be reached at 702.759.INFO (4636). Currently, the line is staffed Monday-Friday from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. PT.

BCPD is Joining Forces for Pedestrian Safety

Boulder City Police Department is joining law enforcement agencies statewide for heightened enforcement of the state's pedestrian safety laws. Through March 15, 2020, extra traffic patrol deputies will be looking for violators. Funding for extra patrols comes from Joining Forces grants provided by the Nevada Department of Public Safety/Office of Traffic Safety. All road users, drivers and pedestrians, need to remember and obey the basic rules of the road that are in place to help save lives. Learn more at www.bcnv.org/CivicAlerts.aspx?AID=159.

Cashman Good Government Award

Last week, Finance Director Diane Pelletier had the honor to receive the Cashman Good Government Award for small communities!! Congratulations to Finance Director Diane Pelletier and her team for the recognition. Staff has made fiscal responsibility, prudent financial stewardship and transparency priorities for the City. The ingenuity displayed by the team has served the citizens in a cost effective and fiscally responsible manner and provide an exceptional example worthy of this recognition. Las Vegas won the overall Statewide award out of the six finalists during the ceremony. Congratulations to Diane and her entire team for making Boulder City proud!!
